

- > Europe's leading tank manufacturer with 13,000 tanks now in service
- > Family run business
- > Winner of 1987 Queens award for Technological Advancement
- > Designed in accordance with the original British Standard BS4994
- > Minimum of 8/1 factor of safety
- > Been tested after 20 years Continuous service to validate the design.
- > Smooth Corrosion resistant inner surface

Customisable Options

Any RAL colour is available
- some examples are shown below:

Originally designed for tanker deliveries of UAN (Ureic Ammonium Nitrate) liquid fertilisers but have now become 'The Standard' bulk storage tank for many chemicals in the range up to 100m<sup>3</sup>.

Camplas's Helically wound GRP tanks have a 20 times higher tensile strength than Polyethylene and do not suffer from the phenomena known as environmental stress cracking which can cause catastrophic failure.

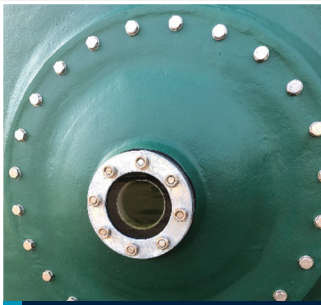

Optional Handrail

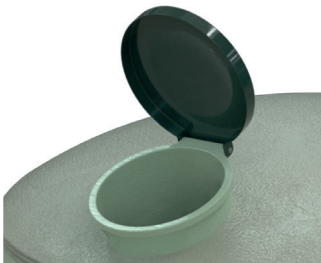

Optional ladder with safety cage

A range of 'Pn16' flanges available from 25pn16 to 450pn16

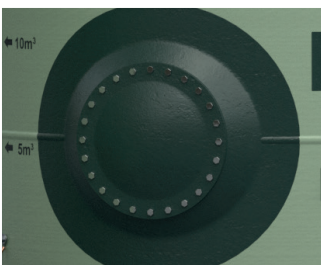

Available options not shown in illustration

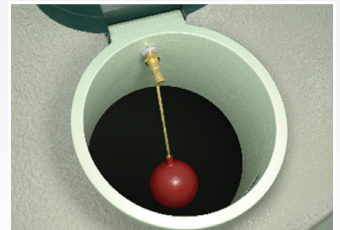

Optional acrylic viewing port

Optional roof manway

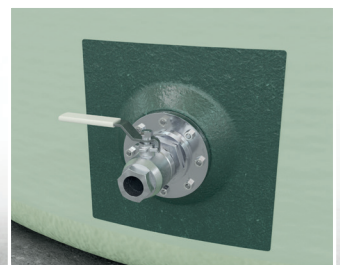

Side access manway as standard

Optional ball valve assembly with Type AB airgap for water tanks

Optional butterfly valve

Optional ball valve